

Possessive Apostrophes

G Grammar

P Punctuation

S Spelling

Challenge 1

GSP 1 Add 's to these singular nouns to show possession.

Example: The bone belonging to the dog is the dog's bone.

a) boy b) cat c) girl d) sheep e) rabbit

5 marks

2 Choose a word from question 1 above to complete each sentence.

a) The _____ dress was torn.

b) The _____ field was extremely muddy.

c) The _____ hat got blown away in the wind.

d) The _____ tail became trapped in the door.

e) The _____ burrow was invaded by ants.

5 marks

Marks..... /10

Challenge 2

GSP 1 Underline the correct use of an apostrophe to show singular possession.

a) The girl's / girls' hair was tied up into a bun.

b) The horses' / horse's stable was freezing cold.

c) The lady removed the mud from the dog's / dogs' fur.

3 marks

2 Underline the correct use of an apostrophe to show plural possession.

a) The pupils' / pupil's school was closed because of the snow.

b) The tree's / trees' branches waved in the wind.

c) The boy's / boys' trainers were filthy.

3 marks

Marks..... /6

Possessive Apostrophes

Challenge 3

GSP 1 Use apostrophes to show possession for the nouns below.

a) 1 shop The shop_____ window was broken.

b) 4 boys The boy_____ trousers were muddy from playing football.

c) 1 mum I went in my mum_____ new car.

2 Choose from the nouns below to fill the gaps in the paragraph. Use apostrophes to show either singular or plural possession.

boy dog brother mum tree

I went to the _____ house after school today. I got to go in his _____ new car.
It was funny because I accidentally stood in the _____ water bowl and my foot was soaking wet. I also played with his _____ toys. Afterwards, we went in the garden. All of the _____ leaves had fallen off and we stamped our feet through them on the ground.

3 marks

5 marks

Marks..... /8

Total marks /24

How am I doing?

