Dear Parents / Carers

Congratulations on yet another great week of home-learning. Despite the obvious difficulties, stresses and strains involved in this lockdown period, you are all doing a fantastic job! The weekend is now here so... put your feet up with a glass of your favourite drink and enjoy your well-earned Superhero certificate.

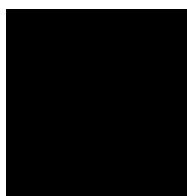

We are delighted to see so many of you now engaging in the School's Twitter feed (@WalfordSchool) which is proving to be a wonderful platform for us to communicate Walford news, successes and noteworthy achievements... so keep tweeting everyone!

Just to give you the heads up, our wonderfully talented teaching team, have planned a themed week to commemorate the 75th Anniversary VE Day celebrations. Once again, this is not meant to cause any additional pressure, teachers will make simple suggestions each day for you and your family to talk about and remember the end of World War II. The week will culminate in the national 'Stay At Home Street Party' on Friday, 8th May for us all to enjoy.

Keep safe, keep smiling and enjoy your weekend everyone - you have most certainly earned it!

Very best wishes

Ms L. George
